WELCOME

Welcome to the Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations; a youth residential treatment facility located in Spokane Valley, Washington. The Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations is one of 12 Indian Health Services Residential Youth Treatment Centers in the United States. The Healing Lodge is a consortium effort that was started by the Colville Confederated Tribes, the Spokane Tribe of Indians, the Kalispel Tribe, the Kootenai Tribe of Idaho, the Coeur d'Alene Tribe, the Nez Perce Tribe, and the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla.

We provide substance use disorder treatment, Mental Health Services, and a state-of-the-art Aftercare Program. Along with a rich array of support services that sets us apart from any other residential treatment center in the country. Our programs include a therapeutic education program that supports our youth's knowledge and learning; a culture program that supports our youth in reconnecting with their family and communities, and a Grammy award winning Expressive Arts program that helps our youth tell their story and heal through music. We pride ourselves on having a unique and exclusive campus that benefits and supports treatment. The Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations is pleased to have you here with us and we will work diligently with you to find success. It is important that you feel safe and ready to face the challenges of recovery. All the staff will be available to assist you in your journey toward success; however, the choice always remains yours to move beyond the dependence of alcohol and drugs. We ask that you thoroughly read the Resident Handbook to ensure that you understand our expectations as well as what you can expect from us.

RESIDENT RIGHTS

The rights below reveal that the Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations supports and protects the fundamental human, civil, constitutional, and legal rights of each person served. It should also be understood that with these rights comes expectations. All residents of the Healing Lodge have the right to:

1. Be admitted to treatment without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability, except for bona fide program criteria (i.e., under 13 years of age or over 18 years of age unless actively enrolled in an educational program).
2. Be provided reasonable accommodations in the event of sensory or physical disability, limited ability to communicate, limited English proficiency, and cultural differences.
3. Be provided treatment in a manner sensitive to individual needs and which promotes dignity, self-respect, and fosters positive self-esteem.
4. Be protected from invasion of privacy except that staff may conduct reasonable searches to be proactive. So residents can live in a contraband free environment.
5. Be provided the opportunity to have all clinical and personal information treated in accord with state and federal confidentiality regulations.
6. Be provided the opportunity to review your own treatment records in the presence of the administrator or her/his assigned designee within the time allotted.
7. Participation in your own health care and treatment that considers your own medical and/or mental health advance directives.
8. The opportunity to have clinical contact with the same gender counselor, if requested and determined appropriate by a manager, either at the Healing Lodge or by referral.
9. Be fully informed regarding fees charged, including fees for copying records to verify treatment and methods of payment available.
10. Be provided a reasonable opportunity to practice the religion of choice if it does not infringe on the rights and treatment of others or the treatment service. You have the right to refuse participation in any religious practice.

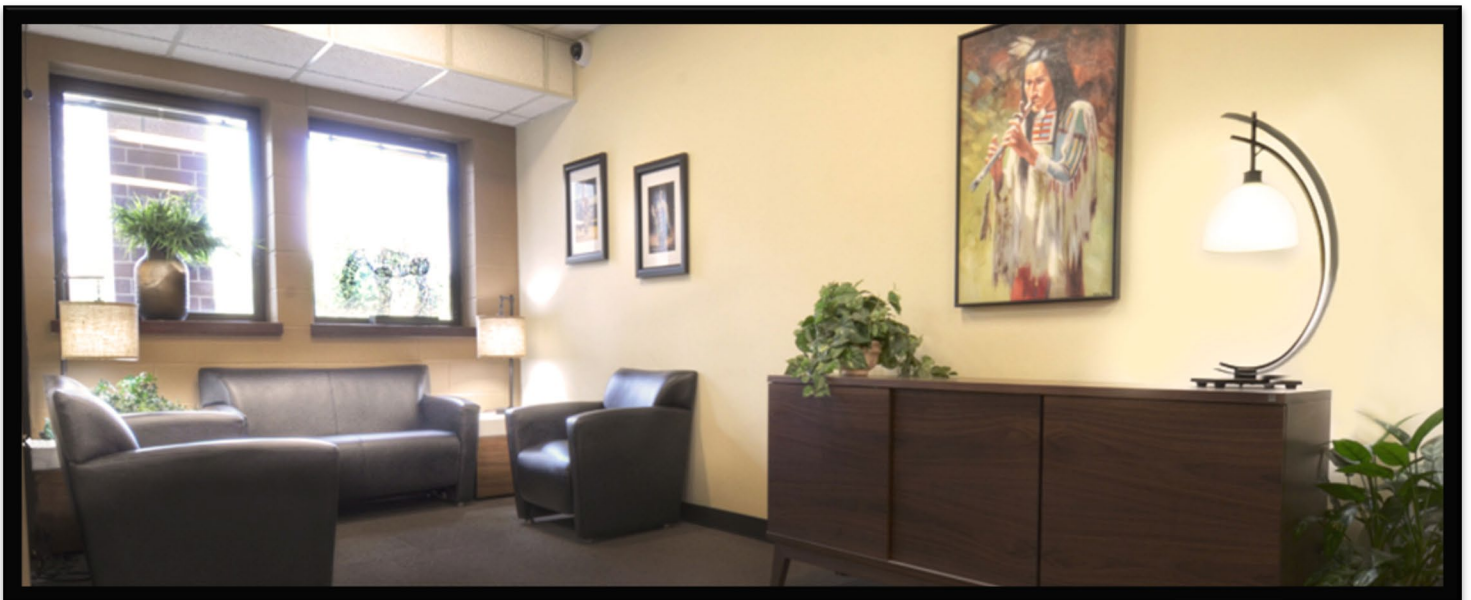

11. Be allowed necessary communication between a minor and a custodial parent or legal guardian, with an attorney, and in an emergency. See telephone use policy for additional information.
12. Protection from abuse, humiliation, neglect, or retaliation by staff always, or from other residents who are on Healing Lodge premises, including sexual abuse or harassment, sexual or financial exploitation, racism or racial harassment, and physical abuse or punishment, deprivation of food, clothes, or other necessities, nor ask you to perform services to the benefit of the Healing Lodge, unless agreed to by you.
13. Information and a copy of disclosure requirements described under RCW (Revised Code of Washington) 18.170.060. This law addresses licensure to practice in the State of Washington.
14. A copy of resident grievance procedures upon request. Staff will provide grievance form when requested within the same business day.
15. In the event of an agency closure or treatment services cancellation, 30-day (about 4 and a half weeks) notice, be assisted with relocation, given a refund to which you are entitled, and advised how to access records to which you are entitled.
16. Assurance that outside person or organizations which provide services to the Healing Lodge is required by written agreement to protect patient confidentiality.
17. Be given a copy of Patient's Rights when receiving services, both at admission and in case of disciplinary discharge.

IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD BE AWARE THAT THE HEALING LODGE IS REQUIRED TO

18. Have access to information pertinent to the person served in enough time to facilitate their decision-making. (If you decide to leave against program advise, you will be provided all the information you will need to make a good decision (I.e., phone calls to referent/probation officer/guardian). Be allowed informal consent or refusal and expression of choice regarding concurrent services. You have the right to refuse one-on-one sessions with mental health, education, culture, and music.

19. Be fully informed and receive a copy of disclosure requirements described under Washington State law and receive a copy of grievance procedures upon request.
20. Obtain your permission for each release of information to any other person or entity (organizations such as schools, tribal programs, police departments, attorneys, probation officer medical personnel, legal guardian, referent, and other treatment facilities.)

RESIDENT ORIENTATION/INTAKE

Upon admission you will go through an orientation period to help you adjust to your treatment environment. This orientation period will occur during the first seven (7) days of treatment.

During your 7-day orientation period, you may make therapeutic calls with your primary counselor present. These phone calls are made to your legal guardian, referent, or probation officer only. After the 7-day orientation, you can make one 15-minute personal phone call each day, only to people on your approved contact list.

During the first 7 days, you will undergo several assessments with the following departments: Admissions, Mental Health, Medical, Culture, Expressive Arts, Physical Education and Education.

You will also meet with your assigned counselor to sign paperwork and develop your Master Problem List and first individual treatment plan. We encourage you to stay focused and participate in your orientation period.

Orientation Laundry Process

1. Resident arrives at Healing Lodge to begin treatment. Following UA & showering in process, all resident belongings will be washed & inventoried inside of Alleva.
 - a. Laundry will be completed by SUS.
 - b. Inventory will be completed by SUS.
2. Once resident laundry is completed, SUS will pull 3 outfits for resident (3 pairs of pants, 3 shirts, 3 pair of socks, & 3 underwear) for residents to wear during Orientation.
3. Resident may exchange clothing from Orientation w/ items in bin if requested, however we will not provide more than 3 outfits.
 - a. Due to high run risk during Orientation phase we want to minimize access to all clothing.
4. Resident will be given a pair of shoes & slides for their stay on Orientation.
5. After clothing is washed during intake/inventory process, Healing Lodge staff will not wash or assist w/ resident laundry.
 - a. This is to mitigate Healing Lodge staff damaging, shrinking, or otherwise altering clothes.
6. Resident will receive the remainder of their clothing following their transition from Orientation to the general milieu.

Personal Display

A. Residents are allowed to have a poster board which is given to them during their orientation period by a skills coach.

B. The poster board will be able to move with them if they are asked to change beds and/or rooms.

C. A poster board will be provided to place personal items of encouragement such as:

1. Family pictures
2. Appropriate magazine clippings
3. Drawings
4. Positive sayings
5. Items

Rebecca Crocker, Executive Director

Jim Walde,
Finance Director

Danielle Stensgar,
Behavioral Health Director

Angelena Campobasso, Business Operations Director

Cassie Anderson,
PSSD Director

The Behavioral Health Department is made up of the following Programs:

Substance Use Disorder Treatment: Are present on unit providing direct service as directed by the SUDP Lead to meet the needs of the residents, no less than 5 days per week. In addition to other duties, Primary SUDP(T)s (who are SUDP or SUDPTs) will provide group counseling sessions in a Chemical Dependency Process Group as well as information and education groups on alcohol, alcoholism, drugs, drug addiction and nicotine addiction and relapse prevention.

Outpatient Mental Health Treatment: The Healing Lodge is staffed with Masters Level Mental Health Clinicians available on site as directed by the Program Manager for the Mental Health Department, at least 5 days per week. These hours may vary based on specific resident needs. Mental Health provides individual counseling and group therapy.

Medical Services: The Healing Lodge is staffed with a Medical Director (under the direction of the Medical Director, nursing staff will meet the day to day medical needs of the residents and facilitate comprehensive medical care as needed at the request of the SUDP(T). At the request of clinical staff, nursing will provide written information, groups and individual counseling and referral as deemed necessary for resident treatment.

Anthony Battaglia,
Medical Director

Cairn Davidson, Licensed Practical

Aftercare Services: A grant-funded position under the outpatient mental health program that works with residents who will be transitioning back to their communities. Aftercare works with the youth and their community providers to develop a discharge plan. For the native youth from Seven Nation Tribes, clinicians will follow them into their community and ensure support for the family and the residents. It is intended to develop a strong plan to support the youth when they return home and reduce the number of youth who come back into treatment.

RESIDENT PROGRAMS

The Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations is made up of several departments. The two departments you will have the most contact with are the Behavioral Health Department and the Program and Support Services Department. Your stay at the Healing Lodge will be filled with daily required programming with groups and activities like those listed below.

The Program and Support Services Department is made up of the following Programs:

Culture: Culture is at the center of life at the Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations. Youth participate in culture programming weekly which follows the teachings of the Medicine Wheel in a 12-week program. Youth are exposed to the oral traditions of storytelling and application of lessons to everyday life including morals, values, self-esteem, self-confidence, self-awareness, and appropriate ways of conducting self in family and communities. Building on the lessons each week, youth will complete at least 6 hand-on projects including beading, drum making and hide painting. In addition to hands-on projects, residents can learn traditional games, drumming, and songs.

A special opportunity for youth is the Sweat Lodge. Youth can attend weekly. The purpose of the Sweat Lodge is to serve as purification and rebalance the physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual/social aspects of self, a healing using prayer, and a transformation of the old self into the new self, detoxification of impurities and helping oneself with forgiveness to find answers and to pray for family/loved ones. River and mountain ceremonies offer additional opportunities for youth to heal.

The Culture Program also offers Rites of Passage Ceremonies to youth who are interested and are qualified to participate. The purpose of the Rites of Passage Ceremony at the Healing Lodge is a ceremonial way to acknowledge the exceedingly difficult psychological and emotional journey many of the youth have experienced in their healing process. This ceremony is designed to mark, through ceremony, this special time in their lives. It gives them an opportunity to challenge their own strength and courage through the safety of the ceremony.

Another celebration is the Transition Ceremony. This is a ceremony where youth and staff gather to participate in the transition of a youth who has successfully completed the Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations treatment program. Youth learn how to support another person's success and a relationship in an appropriate way and how to celebrate a milestone in a positive way. The youth who is successfully transitioning is honored by their peers and staff in a supportive and loving environment to help them to acknowledge the sober person they have become.

Education: The Sinpaqcheen School at the Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations is a state authorized Alternative Learning Experience (ALE) program that provides each youth one or more hours per day, five days per week of supervised academic instruction by a certified teacher. The school provides assignments consistent with the youth's individualized Written Student Learning Plan (WSLP) that is developed in one-on-one collaboration with the youth and a certified instructor. It is based on transcript evaluations of credits needed and the youth's academic goals. Sinpaqcheen School will meet youth where they are academically and follow any provided IEP/504 Plan accommodations. Currently, our school offers courses in middle school and high school core academics as well as fine art, physical education, and Native American Studies. In addition to our traditional class offerings, the school offers GED prep and GED testing for qualified youth. Some additional services include community service hours and food handler permits for Washington State.

Expressive Arts: One of the Healing Lodge's most popular programs, the Expressive Arts program taps into the power of music and self-expression to support positive change in youth. The program enables youth to reach their full potential and to experience the creative process. In addition, youth will learn emotional regulation, management of emotions, and coping skills; recreation and leisure skills and self-expression and creativity development through the song writing and production process.

Youth can express themselves and work with their peers to explore shared experiences and ideas. They develop the ability to critique and analyze their own work. Songwriting exposes them to a range of music technologies and legal issues around intellectual property rights and an exploration of the value of ideas and creativity. Students can share their work through performance, recording and publishing of their song(s). Youth will work on turning their stories into songs over 12-1 hour group sessions and multiple one-on-one sessions. The process will take youth from the initial journaling to lyric creation to beat production and recording. Residents do not need to have a musical or production experience. This program is meant for residents to step out of their comfort zone, learn new skills, process past experiences, and look forward to the creation of new ones. Additionally, the program will utilize technology to help youth understand beat production techniques and software. Youth will develop basic skills using music production software. A career pathway such as Audio Engineering will be explored. By the end of the program, resident will have working knowledge of audio production and have completed at least one song of their own creation.

Health and Wellness: Neuroscience suggests that regular cardio and weight training can reduce anxiety and depression by 50% without medication, which are often precursors to drug use. That is why residents at the Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations participate in physical and athletic activities that promote good health. Recreation is provided in numerous ways like weightlifting, basketball, volleyball, running, and softball. We are proud to announce our recent addition of a Challenge Course to our variety of exercise activities. Residents complete at least one hour of physical education activities every day, of which they receive school credit. At the Healing Lodge, we consciously keep our recreation program flexible so we can meet physical fitness needs and tailor programs to individual youth's interests. Our Physical Education Program gives residents opportunities for growth and improving health while teaching valuable lessons and offering a positive alternative to drug and alcohol use.

Food Services: The Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations has a full service kitchen and dining facility. Residents and staff are offered three meals per day seven days a week. Additionally, residents are offered three snacks per day. A focus on high quality scratch meals and fresh produce is the center of the nutrition program. The program also strives to include Native foods whenever possible. The nutrition program is part of USDA's Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP). Additionally, HIS, OSPI (Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction) and NEWESD 101 provide support, guidelines, and training for program staff. Currently the program is working with the NEWESD 101 Child Nutrition Cooperative which provides support to food service departments operating school

Nutrition programs: As a cooperative member, the Healing Lodge works with a Registered Dietitian to design a menu that meets the needs of our residents and which meets all federal meal guidelines. The Healing Lodge participates in a SNAP-Ed grant that focuses on increasing students' fruit and vegetable consumption menu improvement and creating a healthy school environment. The current program focus is completing a nutrient analysis of the current menus using Primero Edge software. The cooperative will provide ongoing training and support to food service personnel and tailor their services to best meet the needs of residents. In addition to providing meals to residents and staff the program also caters Healing Lodge meetings and events.

Life Skills Program Manager, Service Unit Supervisors, and Behavioral Intervention Specialists: The Healing Lodge of the Seven Nations relies on the Service Unit Supervisors (SUS) and Behavioral Intervention Specialists to meet each individual resident's daily needs. They ensure the safety and well-being of each resident during their stay.

PROGRAM EXPECTATIONS

You are expected to participate in all programming scheduled during your stay. A signed copy of all program expectations will be provided to you, the resident, upon admittance.

You are encouraged to become familiar with all campus expectations to provide a safe environment for you during your stay with us.

The Healing Lodge would like you to have the best treatment experience possible by using all opportunities as a therapeutic experience. The following list will assist you with understanding what is expected of you and our role in helping you attain your treatment goals.

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS):

PBIS is an evidence-based practice used to promote a healthy environment where residents can learn prosocial behavior and receive positive reinforcement to improve overall quality of life. PBIS is a preventative and positive reinforcement system that supports clear instructions and practices for our youth through their recovery. We will translate TRIBE expectations that foster our mission of respect, honesty, generosity, strong cultural identification, and hope for a positive future. The Healing Lodge is committed to addressing resident behaviors through systems change.

Token Economy:

Residents at the Healing Lodge can earn points by engaging in positive behaviors and following campus-wide expectations. Upon admission, each resident is assigned an education transaction card. Points are earned and put on the card. Each resident then can shop in the Healing Market once a week. Residents are responsible for the ETM card that is assigned to them.

WING EXPECTATIONS

- Due to fire codes, doors must be closed when room is empty and no resident is present.
- Each morning room checks will occur for neatness.
 - All items should be picked up off the floor; laundry baskets may be neatly stored under beds.
 - All clothes should be either hung up in closets, placed in your bed drawers or in laundry basket. Hanging clothes from the ceiling vents is prohibited. One coat or sweater may be hung on the back of your desk chair so you can grab it quickly when leaving your room.
 - Beds should be neatly made.
 - Tops of desks/tables should be free of clutter.
 - Consequences for Unclean Room/No Privileges Until Clean
 - Example: no TV lounge, no recreational off unit.
- Care for linen.
- Linen exchange to be done each Saturday and/or Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.
 - Saturday and/ or Sunday is sheet exchange day: All sheets should be turned in for clean sheets.
 - The first Saturday and/or Sunday of each month all bedding (sheets, comforters, blankets, pillowcases, and mattress pads) will be exchanged.
- Furniture care:
 - All furniture should not be moved due to heating/air conditioning ventilation and fire codes.
 - Only one mattress per bed. Stacking mattresses is a safety issue.
 - Residents should only use the bed, dresser, closet, and desk assigned to them.
 - All vents, light fixtures and windows are to remain free from clutter.
- Only staff approved posters/pictures are to be displayed according to facility ordinances. (Vision Board)
- Resident bed arrangements need to stay as is. Please no moving beds/furniture around.

- The laundry room will be closed fifteen (15) minutes before 'lights out' is called. Graveyard staff complete laundry for community items.
 - You should do your own laundry on your designated day. If it is not your laundry day you should get permission from the resident whose laundry day it is.

Common Area Expectations

To create an enjoyable environment we ask that you:

- Please do not walk or stand on furniture.
- Regular meetings between persons served and the program personnel.
- Community (Wing) Meetings
- Community meetings will be conducted once a month by the Life Skills Program Manager or Designee. The purpose of the community meetings is to discuss issues such as program operations, problems, plans or the use of program resources.
- Please do not destroy property or tag property.
- Out of respect for the room, you are asked to return the chairs to their regular position, pick up all trash and clear off the tables.

Common Area lights must always be on and in all situations.

Temporary Room Change

Temporary room changes may be implemented for a variety of reasons. For example: Covid restriction, medical conditions, physical altercation, or any safety related concerns (this is not an exclusive list).

- As a result, the residents will be required to leave their assigned room.
- If possible, they will enter the orientation wing or another open wing. If the orientation wing is not available, they will enter the group room or lounge.

The decision to temporarily move a resident from their assigned room must be discussed with the following staff.

- SUS, LSPM and SUDP Lead

To continue providing a Therapeutic Environment for the resident and the temporary room change, we must continue to provide space so that each resident has sufficient privacy, as well as physical space, for therapeutic interaction with others. This includes but is not limited to...

- Mattress, Linen, preferred item such as a book or journal, change of clothes and access to stored Hygiene supplies
- The remainder of the residents' personal belongings are packed up by assigned BIS to ensure the safe keeping of the resident's property.
- In the event, that the resident refuses basic need items, (mattress/linen) we must provide said items in the room

INTERVENTIONS

Since the implementation of the PBIS, the Healing Lodge prides itself on providing holistic interventions. Holistic interventions treat the whole person; we consider mental and social factors, rather than just the disease's symptoms.

RESIDENT REQUESTED INTERVENTION

At the Healing Lodge, we use what we call resident requested intervention to help prevent potentially harmful behaviors and help you make better choices. There is space available where you and staff can go to talk.

- A personal reflection time is when you request to take a time out for a brief period. This is granted to help you calm down, if deemed appropriate by staff.
- Personal reflection time can be in the gym, or you may walk around the property with a staff member if staffing is available.
- If you are in personal reflection time it will be necessary to be in visual range of staff, for your safety.
- Once reflection time is completed, it should be processed with a member of the Clinical staff (staff is responsible for following up with the resident).

THERAPEUTIC INTERVENTION

- The Healing Lodge does not use physical restraint with its residents.
- The Healing Lodge does not use seclusion with its residents (i.e., the Healing Lodge does not physically restrict the resident's freedom to leave).
- The Healing Lodge offers resident requested intervention time to help residents calm down. This time is decided by the resident and monitored by the staff.

PRO-ACTIVE STAFFING

- A process for reviewing resident information based off the Residential Information Sheet and time spent on the Orientation Wing.
- The purpose of a Pro-Active staffing is to make an informed decision on how to best support the individual during their time at the Healing Lodge based on their strengths and areas of improvement.
 - Example: an individual's strength is drawing but has a history of running

BEHAVIOR INTERVENTION TEAM MEETINGS (BIT)

- The Behavior Intervention Team allows for greater exploration of potential cause and solutions for the area of need to help the resident experience greater success.
- The team consists of the following individuals: the resident, the CDP Counselor, the SUS, and the Trainer.
- BIT's are designed to support the residents and the staff that work with them.
- BIT's support the existing system in determining whether the resident poses a great threat to self or others.
- BIT's provide early intervention to prevent the further disruption to resident treatment.
- A BIT should be called when resident is experiencing difficulties related to any part of their treatment.
- A BIT should be called when a resident continues to struggle despite basic interventions from the wing team using existing policy and procedures.
- A BIT should be called when the resident is disruptive, threatening, verbally abusive, harassing, or threatens physical violence.

HIGH RISK STAFFING

- High Risk Staffing's are designed to focus on the needs of those residents who exhibit patterns of intense problem behavior that may disrupt their Treatment Goals. The intense problem behaviors are dangerous, highly disruptive and impede progress.
- High-Risk Staffing reduces the intensity, frequency, and complexity of existing problem behaviors resistant to and/or unlikely to be addressed by primary prevention in Behavior Intervention (BIT) meetings. The process involves identifying and providing individualized supports for the resident with high level needs.

EXTENDING RESPECT TO OTHERS AND THE FACILITY

At the Healing Lodge we encourage an atmosphere of respect for all community members.

- Each morning when you wake up and each evening before sleeping, give thanks for life, for the good things the Creator/Higher Power has given you and others and for the opportunity to grow a little more each day. Give thanks fo

Yesterday's thoughts and actions and for the courage and strength to be a better person.

- Respect! Respect means "to feel or show honor or esteem for someone or something; to consider the wellbeing of, or to treat someone or something with positive regard or courtesy." Showing respect is a basic law of life.
- Treat everyone from the tiniest child to the oldest elder with respect.
- Lift people up; avoid hurting other hearts as you would avoid a deadly poison.
- Respect anything that belongs to someone else (especially sacred objects) without permission or an understanding between you and the owner.
- Speak in a soft voice; especially when you are with elders, strangers, or others who should be especially respected.
- Respect and avoid interrupting people who are having a conversation.
- Treat the earth and all her aspects as your mother. Show deep respect for the mineral world, the plant world, and the animal world. Show respect to the air or soil. If others want to destroy our mother, rise with wisdom to defend her.
- Show deep respect for the beliefs and religions of others.
- Listen with your heart.
- Be truthful and under all conditions.
- Always treat your guests with honor and consideration. Give your best food, your best blankets, the best part of your house and your best service to your guests.

- The hurt of one is the hurt of all and the honor of one is the honor of all.
- Receive strangers and outsiders with a loving heart and as members of the human family.
- All the races and tribes in the world are like the different colored flowers of one meadow. All are beautiful. As children of the Creator they must all be respected.
- To serve others, to be of some use to family, community, nation, or to the world; are some of the main purposes for which human beings have been created.
- Listen to and follow the guidance given to your heart. Expect guidance to come in many forms: in prayer, in dreams, in times of quiet aloneness, and in the words and deeds of wise elders and friends.
- Respect the rights of ALL persons and avoid the demeaning verbal and physical abuse of all that work and live within the Healing Lodge environment.
- Initiate and contribute to the circulation of positive comments and positive affirmations.
- Be mindful of personal space to help facilitate a safe experience/environment for everyone.
- Notify staff of any emergency. Follow staff instructions immediately in all settings, especially in an emergency.
- Take action to ensure the safety of self, others, and property.
- Fully participate and cooperate in all aspects of the treatment program and individual treatment plans

Based on the Indian Code of Ethics.

KEEPING YOU AND OTHERS SAFE

- Weapons of any sort will NOT be permitted on the premises; Healing Lodge staff will determine what constitutes a weapon.
- Residents are not to bring, ask for, accept, or use any illegal substance at any time. This includes but is not limited to the use and/or possession of alcohol and other drugs. This is to include residents who are prescribed medication and choose to share their medications with other residents. May be referred to early intervention.
- Physical or oral sexual activity between two residents is not acceptable. May be referred to early intervention.
- Verbal assaultive/aggressive comments, such as threats, provoking or instigating fights, cruel teasing, name-calling, cussing, racial remarks, are considered abusive and will not be tolerated.
- Residents will be redirected to use gang language, nicknames, whistling, tagging, gestures, and hand signs to distinguish affiliation to a gang.
- Residents must remain in site of staff
- Destruction of property will not be tolerated. Residents will be immediately redirected and may result in an intervention.
- Stealing, cheating, and gambling are prohibited.
- Residents are not to engage in drug related conversation outside of Substance Use Disorder group.
- Residents are not permitted to enter another resident's room at any time. If residents are found in other residents' room(s) they will automatically receive a red flag.
- Lending, trading, or borrowing of personal belongings with other residents is prohibited.
- Residents are required to attend all meals unless excused by the nurse, counselor, or managerial staff for bed rest.
- Windows in the bedrooms are to always be closed.
- Horseplay is not tolerated. Horseplay may lead to potentially dangerous situations.

Horseplay is defined as rowdy and unruly behavior.

Physical assault will result in an early intervention. The resident, legal guardian or state authorities have the right to file assault charges. Physical assault is defined as striking, shoving, kicking, spitting on, or otherwise subjecting another person to physical contact that causes them harm, is harassing, or alarms that person regardless of whether the behavior was deliberate or whether the potential outcome was intended. This includes subjecting another person to contact with urine, poop, and any other bodily fluids. Physical assault also includes hitting a person with anything thrown, including objects thrown from a window or any other structure.

RESIDENT COMPLAINTS (GRIEVANCES AND/OR CONFLICT RESOLUTION)

You can address issues that concern you in many ways, such as in-groups, community meetings or through the resident grievance process. We are committed to listen and attempt to fully understand the issues.. You are encouraged to state problems and define solutions meaningful to you. You are reminded that while the staff will seek to address your specific issue we must consider what is best for everyone who lives and works at the Healing Lodge.

Your satisfaction is important to the overall quality of care at the Healing Lodge and resolving your concerns is important. There are several steps available for you to deal with a concern/grievance.

- During your intake session, you are informed of your right to file a complaint (grievance), which includes a bullying form.
- When you want to file a complaint (grievance), you may approach any staff member. This staff member will provide you with the policy and the complaint (grievance) form. This staff member may also help you fill out the form.
- If your complaint (grievance) is about your counselor, you have the right to speak with your Clan's Program Manager. If the concern is with your Clan's Program Manager, you may speak with their direct supervisor.
- Follow the steps listed in the complaint (grievance) form to ensure your complaint is addressed promptly.

LEAVE AGAINST PROGRAM ADVICE (APA)

UNAUTHORIZED ABSENCE FROM TREATMENT IS UNACCEPTABLE

If you decide to leave against program advice, please allow us to help you make safe travel arrangements home. Please understand that this may take a little longer than you would have hoped. For all youth under 18 years old, if you leave the premises, we are required, by law, to call the Spokane Police Department.

CONSEQUENCES

Consequence is defined as the effect, result, or outcome of something that occurred earlier. There are diverse types of consequences used here at the Healing Lodge.

Logical consequences: Logical consequences involve action taken by the Healing Lodge Staff.

Natural consequences: Natural Consequences occur without any enforcement on the part of Healing Lodge Staff.

Red flag: Due to safety issues, we have implemented a “Red Flag” categorization. Red Flag offenses are serious violations. Any resident who receives a Red Flag will immediately lose all privileges for at least 48 hours (about 2 days).

Actions that may constitute Red Flag violation are:

- Physical Contact against another resident or staff (any unwanted/aggressive physical touching, contact – pressure points, bullying with the intent to inflict harm.
 - Physical assault is defined as striking, shoving, kicking, spitting on, or otherwise subjecting another person to physical contact that causes them harm, is harassing, or alarms that person regardless of whether the behavior was deliberate or whether the potential outcome was intended. This includes subjecting another person to contact with urine, poop, and any other bodily fluids. Physical assault also includes hitting a person with anything thrown, including objects thrown from a window or any other structure.
- Verbal Assault and threats against another resident or staff member
- Bringing/using drugs while in treatment

If you go On the Run (OTR) and return you will be given a Red Flag and staffed as soon as possible by the treatment team.

NO CONSEQUENCES SHOULD EVER PLACE A CHILD AT RISK OF INJURY.

COMMUNICATION

Communication with family and healthy support systems outside of the Healing Lodge is important for every resident during their stay. We offer the following ways to communicate with pre-approved family and supports during your time at the Healing Lodge.

FAMILY VISITATION

All visitors must be on your approved contact list. Visits must be approved and be pre-scheduled by your Primary Counselor 24 hours in advance. Approved visitors may attend visiting sessions on Saturdays only. Visitors are required to sign a confidentiality statement. Visiting hours are between 1:30pm-3:30 pm

All visitors under 18 must have their own legal guardian with them. Legal guardian and visitor must both be on the contact list. No tobacco items or cell phones will be allowed on the floor. No outside food or beverages are to be brought in. All personal items are to be kept in the car (i.e. purses, cell phones, cameras, wallets, baby bags). Visitors are required to have identification.

If staff suspects a visitor(s) is under the influence of alcohol or drugs or becomes belligerent, the visitor(s) will be asked to leave.

Our visitation guidelines are designed to maintain a safe environment for the residents.

Residents must shower in at the end of their visitation.

MAIL DELIVERY

Residents will be allowed to send and receive mail.

Outgoing Mail: Outgoing mail will not be restricted from a resident unless there is a court directed “no contact order” in the resident’s file.

Incoming mail: Only mail on the approved contact list is delivered daily, Monday through Friday. If a person is not on the approved contact list, counselor may request approval from parent/guardian allowing mail only. All mail must be opened in the presence of a Healing Lodge Primary Counselor. Packages must be opened by the Service Unit Supervisor (residents must be present). All mail will be inspected. Envelopes and packages will be inspected for contraband. Stamps and stickers will be removed from envelopes and packages. Under NO Circumstances will ANY staff read resident mail without the residents consent. Notice...the Healing Lodge provides postage for resident mail the size of a standard 1 ounce letter (approximately 5 pages). Your return address is:

Resident Packages Process

Resident packages are only allowed if it's based on need. We do not want families sending in items to the Healing Lodge unless it's a "need" based item.

1. Intake will inform families and resident of our stance on packages.
 - a. Resident Handbook will have this information as well and residents will review during their time on the orientation wing.
 - b. SUDP Counselors will also inform families of our stance on packages.
2. A parent will need to contact SUD Primary Counselor asking to send in items they feel their child needs.
3. SUDP Counselor will contact PSSD (Adam) to determine if it's an item they need and/or if they can get the item for the youth.
4. Adam will notify the SUDP Counselor if the Healing Lodge can purchase or attain or if they cannot.
 - a. If the Healing Lodge cannot:
 - i. PSSD (Adam) will notify SUDP counselor that they can not get the item.
 - ii. SUDP will contact family and let them know they are approved to send in a package with that specific item(s).
 - iii. SUDP will email PSSD (Adam) and let them know to expect a package and what will be sent.
 - iv. PSSD (Adam) will receive the package
 1. PSSD will open package with resident
 2. PSSD will approve package
 3. PSSD will inventory package contents approved
 4. If extra items added in the package, those will go to the bin.
 - b. If the Healing Lodge can get it:
 - i. PSSD (Adam) will send out email letting SUDP know Healing Lodge can obtain it.
 - ii. SUDP Counselor will contact family and let them know we will be able to obtain for resident and won't need a package sent in.
 - c. If a package arrives and no one approved it:
 - i. The package will be put into bin and will be left there until the resident leaves.

Note: Most times a resident is talking to their family members asking them to send items in or that they need this or that. PSSD also inventories their items at intake and may identify they need items and will go purchase some items for the resident.

Packages become a distraction and they start to become the focus of the resident. They obsess about the package and if they had to wait until the staff member was available to open it, the resident a constant focus.

TELEPHONE USE POLICY

A telephone policy has been established to ensure every resident can use the phone. We encourage communication with family in a way that considers your safety and is not disruptive to the treatment process. Upon admission, residents, family, and admission personnel will develop an initial phone list. This phone list will consist of the parent, Probation Officer, referent, and/or legal guardian or by supportive people.

Phone calls made on the wing are limited to parent/guardian all others will be made with a Clinician. These are phone calls that do not require supervision, but will be monitored. To maintain confidentiality, incoming calls will be screened by staff.

Notice...the Healing Lodge provides the telephone calls.*

- Each resident can make one 15 minute outgoing phone call per day. No three-way telephone calls: if it is discovered that a resident is engaging in three-way telephone calls. Their calls will be limited to the counselor's office.
- Residents may make telephone calls up to 9:15pm daily.
- Residents are encouraged to sign up for their daily phone call. If a resident passes on a phone call, they are then placed at the bottom of the call list and must wait until everyone else gets their calls. If there is no time left that evening, then the resident is placed on the next morning's list for calls.
- You will be asked to end a telephone call if the call includes swearing, loudness, threats, or obvious abuse, or if you do not respond positively to staff's redirection.
- Providing you are unable to contact your party at that time, you will be allowed to try your call again after the staff has allowed everyone to make their calls. If you are not able to contact anyone now, you will be placed at the top of the list for the next day.
- Difficulty complying with the phone policy will result in an early intervention with your Clinician. The Healing Lodge's phone number is (509) 533-6910

PERSONAL HYGIENE

Good personal hygiene involves keeping all parts of the external body clean and healthy. It is important for maintaining both physical and mental health. Keeping your hands and body clean is vital to stopping the development and spread of illness and infection.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE GUIDELINES

In keeping with the times and current fashions, the Healing Lodge expects that all residents will use common sense and good taste in their conservative dress for treatment.

Even though the community norms have become more relaxed in terms of clothing and increased levels of body exposure, these standards will be enforced to maintain an appropriate and focused treatment setting. Resident dress should reflect the notion that the Healing Lodge is a place where the focus is on providing a therapeutic environment.

- Slippers can only be worn on the wing.

Haircuts

Haircuts are scheduled once a month and are provided free of charge by the Healing Lodge. When scheduled, a sign up list will be posted in Fast Track.

Sleep

Residents have been asked to notify staff if they are unable to sleep. Behavioral Intervention Specialists are asked to pay closer attention to signals or verbalizations from residents who may be having trouble falling asleep.

MONEY AND GIFT CARDS

Residents are not permitted to possess money or gift cards while at the Healing Lodge. If a resident is given money or a gift card, we will ask the family to please take it back (or we will mail it back to the family). We are not permitted to hold the money or gift card for the resident. Residents are not permitted to go shopping while in treatment. The Healing Lodge provides opportunities for our residents to obtain clothing from local nonprofit organizations if the need arises.

ABANDONED & LOST BELONGINGS

During the intake process you and your legal guardian will have signed an abandoned and lost belonging notice. In signing this form, you agree that the Healing Lodge is not liable for missing or damaged items, or items forgotten and left behind when you leave. You have a choice to leave any valuable items in the safe or in the locked contraband storage room.

you choose to bring, or loan, your items on the floor you are responsible for damaged, missing, or abandoned items.

If you travel on a plane or bus (returning home), there are limits to how many bags that can be placed on the plane, bus, or train. Legal guardians are responsible for mailing and shipping any extra luggage home. The Healing Lodge will keep personal belongings for 30 days (about 4 and a half weeks). After 30 days (about 4 and a half weeks), if not picked up, the Healing Lodge accepts no further responsibility. Unclaimed items will be donated to a charity of our choice.

Items brought into the facility will be inventoried. This includes luggage, clothing, personal belongings, etc.

LIGHTS OUT

Sleep is an especially important part of your treatment and recovery; therefore, we urge you to establish healthy bedtime habits.

- When LIGHTS OUT is announced, all residents are asked to go to their rooms and turn off the lights.
- All games should be put away at bedtime.
- Residents are to remain in their designated rooms after LIGHTS OUT. The only exception to this is to use the restrooms.
- There is to be only one (1) resident at a time in the restroom after LIGHTS OUT.
